

Providers for AMA Guides Training

Organization	Overview
American Board of Independent Medical Examiners https://www.abime.org	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Virtual and live training options • Covers all ratings types
American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons – Compensation Musculoskeletal and Expert Witness Training https://www.aaos.org	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Offered during annual meeting Workers’ • Musculoskeletal rating focused
American Society for Surgery of the Hand https://www.assh.org	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Offered annually during annual meeting • Upper extremity (hand) rating focused
eMedicoLegal https://www.emedicolegal.com	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Virtual training • Covers all AMA Guides editions
International Academy of Independent Medical Evaluators https://www.iaime.org	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Virtual and live training options • Covers all AMA Guides editions
WorkCompCentral https://www.workcompcentral.com/edu	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Virtual and live training options • Covers AMA Guides Fifth

The list above is provided for AMA Guides users requiring training for the new AMA Guides Sixth updates to the spine, musculoskeletal and nervous system content as well as other AMA Guides editions.

It is the responsibility of the individual/organization to determine if a training program meets state or jurisdictional requirements for performing impairment ratings.

The AMA does not endorse or accredit vendors who provide AMA Guides for evaluating permanent impairment training.